Brussels, 30th June 2011

Dear Rimantas,

Further to the legal incorporation of the new GS1 Lithuania association on 29 June 2011 under registration number 302642800, GS1 is happy to acknowledge and confirm that the rights and obligations of the Association of Lithuanian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (ALCCIC) as a Member Organization of GS1 are transferred to GS1 Lithuania (new legal entity).

As a member organization of GS1, GS1 Lithuania (new legal entity) is entitled to use GS1 Prefix 477 for issuing GS1 Company Prefixes and other GS1 identification numbers to your members for the identification of their products and services in the supply chain.

Furthermore, GS1 Lithuania is entitled to use the name 'GS1' and the GS1 logo on its stationery and publications and as part of its business name. The conditions governing the use of the GS1 name and logo are set out in the enclosed Trademarks License Agreement. One completed and signed copy should be returned to GS1 marked for my attention.

Also enclosed is the GS1 Code of Practice for Member Organisations, for signature, and a 'Rights Certificate' setting out the key rights of GS1 Lithuania within GS1.

Wishing you a successful launch of the new GS1 Lithuania association and looking forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Monica Walsh

RIGHTS CERTIFICATE

GS1 Lithuania

Foreword

GS1 is a voluntary, not-for-profit, international association that develops global standards enabling the unique identification of products and services in the supply chain and the electronic communication and synchronization of related business information between trading partners. GS1 has 111 nationally based member organisations and its standards are used by over 1.5 million user companies worldwide. The head office of GS1 is located in Brussels, Belgium. Each GS1 Member Organisation is authorised by GS1 to administer the GS1 System in its country and is the sole GS1 Member Organisation for that country.

Rights

Exclusive Territory. GS1 Lithuania is the GS1 Member Organisation for Lithuania. GS1 has granted GS1 Lithuania an exclusive license to administer the GS1 System in Lithuania and allocate GS1 Company Prefixes and other GS1 identification numbers to companies for the identification of their products and services in the supply chain. It is the sole representative of GS1 in Lithuania.

Trademarks License. By virtue of its membership in GS1, GS1 Lithuania has an exclusive right to use the 'GS1' registered trademarks in Lithuania under the terms of a Trademark License.

Copyright License. GS1 Lithuania has the exclusive right to copy, translate, reproduce and distribute the GS1 standards, guidelines and user manuals together with related promotional materials.
